10th May 2018
Term 2, Week 2

Dear Parents,

Mothers' Day Assembly Tomorrow Friday 11th May at 8:45am

We welcome all parents, especially mothers, to our special Mothers' Day assembly tomorrow morning at 8:45am, followed by a community morning tea in the St Maximilian Hall and a visit to our classrooms to undertake a learning activity with your daughter or son. Given Mothers' Day falls very early in the term you will notice the classrooms are still building their displays etc, as their units of work are progressively taught.

Thank you to the wonderful parents from Year One who coordinated the Mothers' Day Stall so that your child has something special chosen by them to give you on Sunday. Keep an eye on next week's Shine for acknowledgements and a full wrap up of our Mothers' Day Celebrations.

On behalf of the children and staff I would like to wish all mothers in our parish school community a happy and heartfelt Mothers' Day for this Sunday. The special love that only a mother can give is always appreciated but not always acknowledged. Every day should be Mothers' Day, so why not rest and relax on Sunday and allow your family to show their love and thanks to you for the invaluable role you play in their lives.

Kindergarten Enrolments 2019

Our enrolment process for Kindergarten enrolments for 2019 has well and truly begun. To date, including siblings, well over 115 enrolment packages have been collected. This is a true testimony and affirmation of the wonderful St Angela's community, the high standard of quality Catholic Education we provide and the outstanding educators and staff present. Our school certainly has a great reputation, thanks to all of you. You, as parents, are our best ambassadors and we hope you are as proud of St Angela's as we are.

When prospective enrolment families for 2019 visited St Angela's in Term 1 for a school tour and information session, they stated how impressed they were and are certainly looking forward to their young ones starting in 2019.

Sacrament of First Holy Communion

Congratulations to our Year 3 students, along with those throughout the parish, who over the next three weeks will celebrate the Sacrament of First Holy Communion.

Thank you for your continued support. It is in partnership that we can achieve great things for our children.

Theme for the Week

"Mothers are a Gift from God"

Our theme this week is an acknowledgement that our Mothers, in so many ways, are one of the most precious gifts that God has given to all of us. We learn so much from the role modelling and care our Mothers give us. The unique qualities of our own mothers, whether by God's side or with us, are indeed special and we give thanks to Our Lord for their committed care and love in our lives.

Religious Education

Sunday, 13 May 2018: The Ascension of the Lord - Year B

Gospel Mk 16:15-20

Jesus commissions the eleven, ascends to heaven.

The purpose of the passage is that Jesus sends his followers out 'to the whole world' to continue his ministry. It is the 'whole world' to which they are sent; not just their cosy little corner of the world but the whole world. It's what Christian people for the last 2,000 years have been called to do: continue Jesus' ministry to the whole world. It's what each and every one of us is called to do today: 'proclaim the Good News to all creation'. That doesn't mean standing on street corners with a Bible in our hands but it means proclaiming the Good News through our everyday actions and by being open and honest about our faith. It means treating all people as Jesus would.

Francis of Assisi is credited with saying, 'Preach the gospel at all times and when necessary, use words!' In every interaction we have we say so much about who we are, what we think of the other person and what we believe – even without opening our mouth. Our actions and attitudes proclaim our beliefs more powerfully than our words ever do. If we claim to be concerned about justice and yet behave unjustly then it is our actions, not our words, that will be heard! When we are called to 'proclaim the Good News' we are called to do this first and foremost in action.

- Q. How is it possible to be a proclaimer of the Good News today?
- Q. Who do you know who really lives their beliefs and in that way proclaims the Good News?

Mothers Day Assembly

Please join us for our Mother's Day prayer and assembly on Friday, 11th of May at 8.45am under the big top as we honour our Mothers and all that they mean to us.

A Prayer For A Stressed Out Mum

*May you have clarity of thought and a morsel of sanity today.
May you know that His grace is enough. For every season, every tantrum, every question, every failure. It is enough. Always.*

May you know that you are truly loved by your Father, just as you are. Not because of what you accomplished today, or didn't. Or how you feel about God at this moment, or whether you complained, or spent time in prayer, or messed up in the worst way, or celebrated a victory. He adores you, just because.

And with of this knowledge, may you feel empowered to love your children the same way. The way God asks you to, the way your kids deserve, and the way you want to.

May you feel equipped to tackle every challenge, every situation, and every day with courage and joy even if you have to "start over" 10 times by 9 a.m.

May excitement fill your heart every morning for all that the day can be. Your children are your treasure, and this day is a gift - may you fully embrace it all.

May you lay your head down at night with a heart that is bursting and memories too plentiful to count. May you know unspeakable joy at the end of the day.

May you recognize that though these days are so (so, so) long, the years are short. They are a breath. And as you exhale yours in the darkness of the night, may your cup overflow with thanksgiving.

*May your dreams be sweet and your sleep be restful.
Sleep well, Mum, knowing that the work you are doing is good, and your Father is smiling on you.*

- Malinda Fuller

Sacrament of First Eucharist

Let us keep in our prayers the Year 3 children who will soon receive the sacrament of First Eucharist. As a school and parish community we celebrate and share this joyous occasion with our students.
