Term 2, Week 2

Dear Parents,

Mothers' Day Assembly Tomorrow Friday 10th May at 8:45am

We welcome all parents, especially mothers, to our special Mothers' Day assembly tomorrow morning at 8:45am, followed by a community morning tea in the St Maximilian Hall and a visit to our classrooms to undertake a learning activity with your daughter or son. Given Mothers' Day falls very early in the term you will notice the classrooms are still building their displays etc, as their units of work are progressively taught.

Thank you to the wonderful parents from Year One who co-ordinated the Mothers' Day Stall so that your child has something special chosen by them to give you on Sunday. Keep an eye on next week's Shine for acknowledgements and a full wrap up of our Mothers' Day Celebrations.

On behalf of the children and staff I would like to wish all mothers in our parish school community a happy and heartfelt Mothers' Day for this Sunday. The special love that only a mother can give is always appreciated but not always acknowledged. Every day should be Mothers' Day, so why not rest and relax on Sunday and allow your family to show their love and thanks to you for the invaluable role you play in their lives.

Kindergarten Enrolments 2020

Our enrolment process for Kindergarten enrolments for 2020 has well and truly begun. To date, including siblings, over 140 enrolment packages have been returned. This is a true testimony and affirmation of the wonderful St Angela's community, the high standard of quality Catholic Education we provide and the outstanding educators and staff present. Our school certainly has a great reputation, thanks to all of you. You, as parents, are our best ambassadors and we hope you are as proud of St Angela's as we are.

When prospective enrolment families for 2020 visited St Angela's in Term 1 for a school tour and information session, they stated how impressed they were and are certainly looking forward to their young ones starting in 2020.

Sacrament of First Holy Communion

Congratulations to our Year 3 students, along with those throughout the parish, who last weekend celebrated the Sacrament of First Holy Communion.

Thank You

My sincere thanks and appreciation to Mrs Yager for her outstanding leadership whilst I was on leave for the first week of this term. My thanks also to the entire St Angela's team for their wonderful start to the term.

My daughter's wedding over the holiday break was such a magical day. The thought of walking your daughter down the aisle always seems so distant when they are children, but they grow up so quickly. Be sure to enjoy the precious primary school years! We all enjoyed every minute of the day. On behalf of Maree and Jeremy, Maureen and myself, thank you for your well wishes and blessings.

It is lovely to be back and I look forward to another great term full of faith, fun and learning as we work together in partnership to allow your children to 'let their light shine'!

Thank you for your continued support. It is in partnership that we can achieve great things for our children.

Principal

Theme for the Week "Mothers are a Gift from God"

Our theme this week is an acknowledgement that our Mothers, in so many ways, are one of the most precious gifts that God has given to all of us. We learn so much from the role modelling and care our Mothers give us. The unique qualities of our own mothers, whether by God's side or with us, are indeed special and we give thanks to Our Lord for their committed care and love in our lives.

Mothers' Day Cancer Council Fundraising

Many of our families have been touched by this terrible disease. Once again, this year we will be participating in fundraising for the Cancer Council during our Mothers' Day morning tea on Friday 10th May. Should you wish to make a donation, collection boxes will be placed on tables for morning tea in the school hall.

Jn 10:27-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I give my sheep eternal life.

Gospel Reflection

Shepherds in the first century did not have a particularly good reputation. Whilst the task itself was a responsible one, it was usually undertaken by hired help – usually young men or even boys. Being hired help, they had little allegiance to the flock and were generally regarded as basically untrustworthy and often accused of illicitly selling off the sheep's milk and even the occasional lamb. They lived for months at a time out in the hills with the sheep; often risking their lives in defence of their flock, yet still regarded with suspicion. Shepherds were held in such low regard that they could not appear in court as a witness. Yet, despite this grim picture of shepherds, Jesus described himself as the Good Shepherd. With that one word, he acknowledged the reputation of shepherds but utterly dismissed it by describing himself as a shepherd – but a good shepherd. He chose to describe himself as the worst of all occupations but raised the status to unimpeachable heights.

In describing himself as the good shepherd, Jesus joined a distinguished list of biblical shepherds: Abraham, his son Isaac, and grandson Jacob were all shepherds; Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, when God appeared to him in the burning bush and revealed God's name; and the great King, David, began life as a humble shepherd-boy. So, despite the poor reputation of shepherds in Jewish society, some of the greatest leaders of the Jews began life as shepherds.

Today's gospel passage follows the famous 'good shepherd' passage in the gospel of John and continues on the image. The passage portrays Jesus as 'claiming' his flock; guaranteeing them not only safety but also eternal life. This oath of loyalty and commitment is all the stronger and more remarkable in light of Jesus' rehabilitation of the status of shepherds.

Scriptural context – The Father and I are one

The final sentence of today's passage has Jesus declaring, 'The Father and I are one.' It seems a fitting way to finish the gospel reading for liturgical use in the Easter season. However, the passage in John's gospel continues on. Immediately upon hearing these words, the listening crowd grab rocks and are about to stone Jesus to death! They were horrified by his apparent blasphemy – claiming to be one with God. Such a bold declaration of oneness with the Father was no doubt used by the gospel writer to try to eradicate emerging questions about the divinity of Jesus.

Have you thought? Why John?

You may have noticed that during the Easter season, we have been hearing exclusively from the gospel of John. But aren't we in Year C of the liturgical cycle – the year of Luke? Well, yes, but ... The gospel of the year is predominantly proclaimed during Ordinary Time. However, there is no Year of John. This gospel is read during the Easter season and at other specific feasts and seasons. As the synoptic gospels focus on the life and ministry of Jesus, the theological and metaphoric nature of John's gospel is much more suited to the post-resurrection season of Easter.

Gospel Focus – Eternal life

In the gospel passage, Jesus says of the sheep that belong to him, 'I give them eternal life.' He does not say, I give them the promise of eternal life. The message that comes through the gospel of John is clear that eternal life is not some future existence, but rather a new way of being in the here and now. But that is not to suggest that there is not an 'eternal' quality to eternal life. The gospel of John makes clear that eternal life begins in the here and now but has no end.

Q. What message of hope for people today can be found in this short passage?

Q. What meaning does the image of the 'good shepherd' hold for you?

First Holy Eucharist

Congratulations to all our students who received their first holy communion on the 4th and 5th of May. We thank all the members of staff and parents who assisted Fr Al and the parish sacramental team during the weekend masses.

Religious Education Coordinator

"We would love to hear from you to help us improve the education we provide"

In the coming weeks, every diocesan school will be inviting students, teachers and parents to provide feedback on their experience of their school using an online "Tell Them From Me" survey. The surveys are an important part of our whole school evaluation and planning process.

As we value the role of parents within our school community, we would greatly appreciate your feedback. The information you provide will be used to maintain our commitment to working together in partnership, to further improve student learning and wellbeing at St Angela's.

The survey is anonymous and will take approximately 20 minutes to complete. Please keep an eye out for the URL link to access the survey coming home soon.

From the Library.....

May is National Family Reading Month!

Reading is the foundation to a child's future success. Research shows that family reading time is one of the best ways to grow a child's interest in the wonderful world of books. We encourage you to spend time read, read, reading. Whether it is together, modelling reading or being read to, it is a key to success.

Kids who read, succeed!

"Cough and Cold Season is Already Here"

The cold season is ahead of us and many of our students have already had quite distressing coughs and colds. Students and teachers are exposed to a multitude of germs during the day and, subsequently, at times fall ill. We ask for your assistance in encouraging good hygiene practises, ie. coughing into the elbow, washing hands after toileting and before eating etc, lots of sleep if not feeling well.

Birthday Treats

Celebrating a birthday is something all children look forward to! If your child wishes to bring a treat to school to share with their friends (purely optional), we kindly ask that you send in cupcakes (nut free) or donuts. Cupcakes or donuts are preferred as they are easy to hand out and are a treat that all children enjoy. Due to a multitude of allergies present, we ask that you do not send lollies, chocolates or other treats in. Similarly at Easter or Christmas, we ask that you do not send in lollies, chocolates or candy canes. Please note, although a lovely idea, ice blocks are not practical as we have limited freezer space.

If your child has allergies, you are welcome to send some cakes in for your child, which we will be kept in the freezer in the staffroom and given out as necessary.

Thank you for supporting us as we endeavour to keep all children safe and happy!
