EVERY FAMILY HAS HOPES AND DREAMS

As parents we have hopes and dreams for our children. We encourage and listen to them; we provide them with opportunities for growth and development. These hopes and dreams express our love for our children - a love that is unconditional- even when hopes and dreams may not be realised or may be shattered.

God too has dreams for each of us to reach our full potential through our families, friends and through the risks we take. Our hopes and dreams for ourselves and for others give us only a glimpse of the vastness of God's dreams for us. It is in striving genuinely to reach our dreams that we become aware of God's action in our lives. In the midst of the joy and the grief that our daily living can bring, we discover a God who loves us and who both rejoices and laments with us in all our hopes and dreams.

God dreams that we will live together in peace and harmony.

God dreams that we will love and take care of each other.

God dreams that we will forgive each other.

God dreams that we will care for our world.

Next week at St Angela's we will join Catholic Schools across NSW and the ACT to celebrate Catholic Education. The students and teachers will come together for a liturgy at the beginning of the week and throughout the week, will celebrate Family Week. Families are the centre piece of Catholic education. Parents are the first and most important educators of their children and work in partnership with schools to educate their children in faith. During Family Week at St Angela's children have a break from formal homework (although we ask that every child still reads each night) to spend time with you as a family. You may choose an activity that you can do as a family each day with your child. Examples in the past have included playing a board game, sitting and sharing stories, cooking a meal together, feeding the pet, playing cards, helping put away laundry, setting the table, reading mum or dad a book, washing the car, gardening, writing mum and dad a thank you note, spending time in prayer/saying the Rosary, going for a family walk etc. Family Week is aimed at freeing children up to assist and/or spend time with those who love them most, their greatest heroes, you their parents and family.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT YEAR C
6th March 2022

GOSPEL

Lk 4:1-13

Jesus is tempted in the desert.

Family Connection

In Luke's Gospel, the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert appears just after Jesus' baptism and before Jesus begins his public ministry. We can imagine this as a time of transition, a turning point in Jesus' life. Perhaps we can liken it to one of the important turning points in our own lives: the decision to marry, the birth of a child, the acceptance of a new job, or the decision to move to a new home. After the moment of decision, having reached the point of no return, we sometimes begin to wonder if we are prepared and ready for the task before us. Turning points can be times of doubt and insecurity. Jesus' response to the temptations of the devil offers an example for responding in faith when our doubts and insecurities tempt us to distrust God's sufficiency. Jesus rebukes the devil by quoting Scripture. Each citation is an affirmation of trust in God. We learn to trust in big things by practising trust in little things. Our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and alms-giving invite us to trust God in these small ways. They remind us that God will suffice for us. They prepare us to trust in God in all things, especially in moments of doubt and uncertainty.

As a family, talk about ways in which trust has been built among members of the family. Observe how being trustworthy in small matters enables us to trust one another in more important matters. Offer specific examples if possible (e.g., children who establish their responsibility in household tasks can be granted greater independence and freedom to choose how they perform these tasks). Today's Gospel shows us how Jesus trusted God in all things. Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 4:1-13. Discuss how Jesus showed his trust in God when he resisted the devil's temptations. Invite family members to name times when they have trusted God in matters small or large. Write a family prayer together. You might write the prayer so that each line begins with a letter in the word "trust." Pray this prayer together.
